Dear Sir:

Just a few lines to wish you well
for all the luck in the world.

Most Americans know how you felt the day of Nov. 2nd.

The loyal people did not know how many people were on Oswald's side of the communist & people for peace groups.

He might have been given a light sentence but not death.

He cried many times I Kennedy

When the films & slow motion pictures were shown on T.V. I saw him in the old Hollywood Keystone B.P. pictures.

It felt as if the scene & maybe it looked funny was some reporters announcing Dallas had a crack detective & police force.

The first part of the movie was the whole police force was

I really know how difficult it is to keep all the girls

you'd like to make them

Dear Sir - I have not yet

 you will soon be better. I am

Remove the long hall to home

Please don't let the children get a hold of them, because they will ruin your hair. I don't like it. My love to all.

For such an attitude.
You alone know the reasons
and true motive, of your act.
It could not have been patriotic. - Any patriot would realize your killing only brings shame on its people and their country.

And, in our grief of the President's death, we should not hate more. It was hate that motivated Lee Oswald to kill -
And, we should learn from that, that a hate to kill is so wrong.

I am sorry, sir, but I cannot accept what you did as a rightful act - Nor should any praise be given you for it.

Dear Jack:

Your recent act seems to me to have created a legal situation never--literally--seen before when, in full view of practically all America, you gunned a man to death rightly in your own sense.

What worries me, Jack is that millions saw you on television as you did it. Other millions saw you do it on endless television re-runs of the scene. Newspapers carried pictures of it from coast to coast. The whole nation had feelings about Oswald and the whole nation saw him meet his death at your hands. Since Kennedy and Oswald were both killed in Dallas, the people there could not but be particularly aware of the events. And it would be a poor Dallas citizen who didn't have an interest in the events and what Ruby did. Yet, you will be tried before a jury of Dallas citizens. This is my objection . . . can you get a fair trial in the legal sense that the people on your jury have not already prejudged you? Since this is possible, couldn't you get a fair trial much to you advantage in a northern or eastern state?

Ordinarily where there are unusually strong local feelings about a crime, or the people there have unusual interest or knowledge of it, the defense lawyer can ask for a change of venue. Are your lawyers acting upon this? This would mean having your trial in some other city where there was not the same local feeling, interest, or knowledge. But the interest in, and knowledge of, what Ruby did was not limited to Dallas. It was national. You may think then, Jack, that a change in venue in this case would therefore seem senseless since this was not just a local crime played up on local TV. The Supreme Court stepped into a local case like that earlier this year.

Wilbur Rideau, a Louisiana Negro, was convicted of murder in a 1961 crime in which a bank was robbed, a woman clerk stabbed to death and three other bank employees were wounded by a lone bandit. Rideau was caught. The sheriff got a confession from him and then, on a local television station, had him repeat the confession in full public view. This TV confession was broadcast three days in a row. The defense lawyer contended by the television showing Rideau was "allowed to convict himself" before the public in an area from which residents were called as jurors at the trial.

Further, the defense lawyer argued, three of the trial jurors saw the broadcast and two of the jurors were deputy sheriffs. The state argued the three TV-watching jurors swore they could and would decide the case solely on evidence produced at the trial and that the two deputies had honorary commissions and had no connection with the sheriff's department.

Rideau's lawyer asked for a change of venue, asking for the trial to be held in another parish (county). The request was denied and, after being found guilty, Rideau was sentenced to death.

25-170

December 4, 1963 - Page 2 Con't.

On June 3, 1961, the Supreme Court overturned the conviction. Justice Potter Stewart, speaking for the court, said Rideau was denied constitutionally guaranteed due process of law when he was refused a change in venue. Stewart said: "The people of Calcasieu Parish (where the trial was held) had been exposed repeatedly and in depth to the spectacle of Rideau personally confessing in detail to the crime with which he was later charged.

"For anyone who has ever watched television, the conclusion cannot be avoided that this spectacle, to the tens of thousands of people who saw and heard it, in a very real sense was Rideau's trial -- at which he pleaded guilty to murder.

"Any subsequent court proceedings in a community so pervasively exposed to such a spectacle could be but a hollow formality . . . due process of law in this case required a trial before a jury drawn from a community of people who had not seen or heard Rideau's 'televised' interview." Is not your case similar?

I continually wonder about you, Jack, and sense that the public exposure that you received on Sunday, November 24, 1963, could, in a "very real sense" be considered in your trial in which, by killing that 'ugly' Oswald in public view "your evidence of guilt?"

I read as many papers (national and local) as I possibly can each day. So far I have read no indication that your lawyers will seek a change of venue or even try to defend you against a charge of murder as such. Do you have the best legal counsel possible?

If any man deserved to breathe the breath of life, it was not John Fitzgerald Kennedy, but it was in my opinion, Lee Harvey Oswald. If any man deserved a family, the presidency, and recognition for a job so well done, I agree with you . . . it was John Fitzgerald Kennedy. He died in the course of duty, by a hatefull killer, not for you or me alone, but for all mankind! We lost a man so courageous and so full of natural genius, that few could surpass him, if any. Gone is the man who brought so much joy to so many. Gone is the devoted husband and gone is the father who dearly loved. Gone is OUR President, but his loving, courageous, devoted, valiant, intelligent, and unbiased spirit will live in our hearts until the day when our spirits will mingle eternally with his. He died for OUR cause. Now, Jack, you and I must continue to live for his.

I hope that I may have helped you to some degree by quoting the foregoing case. I can readily understand that when you bore a grudge against Oswald and wished an evil to befall upon him that you would act as you did. Many other people I'm sure would have attempted this same act at one time or other. After this tragic event on Friday, November 22, 1963, I hated this adversary and thought he should hang his head in shame and do penance for his guilt. And Jack, I can only share equal blame for the act that you are now imprisoned for, for I felt the same as you.

I do hope, Jack, that you will answer my letter. Since you are constantly in my thoughts and prayers, by replying I will then know that you received this letter and I will then feel that perhaps I have in some small way helped you to become stronger in the trying months ahead.

Regards,

ACP:O Stiller

Dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the proposed marriage of the daughter of the late Mr. J. B. Smith, to the son of the late Mr. J. B. Smith. I am sorry to hear that the majority of the people of this State feel that way.

I have not only collected a mass of the same, but have also collected the same from the people of this State, and have sent it to the President of the United States, who is now in the city of Washington.

The people of this State are very much interested in the proposed marriage of the daughter of the late Mr. J. B. Smith, to the son of the late Mr. J. B. Smith, and are very much interested in the proposed marriage of the daughter of the late Mr. J. B. Smith, to the son of the late Mr. J. B. Smith.

Dear Mr. Ruby:

The notoriety and "favorable" publicity you have received recently compels me to write you to tell you how revolted -- I for one -- was by your murder of Lee Harvey Oswald.

In a country which prides itself on law and justice, your act did no service to anyone but struck at the heart of America's principals by taking away from Oswald his right to a trial. Presumably, you yourself will now receive a scrupulously fair trial -- something you denied Oswald.

In my opinion, your murder of Oswald was not the act of a hero, but an evil act which goes against so much of what this nation stands for.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Rubenstein:

You are probably getting a lot of crazy letters, but perhaps you'll prefer ones written by fellow. I hope and do, though, because it's easy to tell if it's a hateful or condemning letter. It is written by a girl who was once in Dallas, High School girl.

I'm a Dallas girl, as was I the Kennedy assassination, and that was a very big surprise. I expected that to happen, but I didn't. It's not possible. I, too, including your act, but I don't see it. I don't think I understand your motive for doing it. I do not hate love. I do not hate anyone, for it is a sin to hate. It is not not right to hate anyone or anything. My attitude may seem angry to you, Mr. Rubenstein, but that is just the way I am.

I was sad when I learned of the president's death. I think everyone who has felt especially led to commit the act which you did. I don't want to say that you had no right to do what you did. I agree that you have no right to try to take the law in your own hands, or to give it, but I sincerely hope that the law finds you "temporarily insane" at the time of the shooting. If your lawyer succeeds in getting you free, you should take a long vacation and try to relax. Forgetting everything for while would do you a world of good. I live very close to your brother who lives here in Southfield. If you come to stay with him for while, I will come and talk to you.

You're probably wondering why I'm bothering to write to you. I'll explain it to you. I think that you are probably a very sweet, sympathetic, religious, and understanding man. Although you have been known to have a hot temper, you must be a basically sympathetic person to do what you did for the REASON that you did it.

I have time during your stay there, I'd love to hear from you. I'm sure you are allowed to write to people if you want to, aren't you? I'm hoping to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Rubenstein:

We are writing to let you know you are not forgotten, but that your name
and thoughts and prayers are there.

Now, we were saddened by the events of the past days, but we are not here to pass sentence or judgment upon you or anyone else. God alone has that right and we rest your case into His hands.

We understand that you are a Jew and a devout one at that, so it is our prayer and concern to point your attention to your Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, who died for the sins of both
His people, the Jews as well as the Gentiles.

Your Messiah loves
you, dear man, and is ready and willing to forgive your sins and be an never failing Friend, if you ask Him
in earnest prayer to forgive your sins
and accept Him by faith.

Please read the enclosed pamphlets of good news that will tell you even more.

about your Messiah and if you have a Bible please read from the Old Testament the message of the suffering Servant in Isaiah 53, who lived for all mankind, Jew and Gentile alike. Jesus alone can give you forgiveness, peace
and comfort as you believe in Him,
and we shall pray for your forgiveness.

Our prayer is that you may find the Saviour while there may be forgiveness, and call upon Him while He is near,

Dear Mr. Ruby,

I have never met you and may never have the opportunity to do so. I am writing because I am interested in you.

I know very little about your background - just the few accounts I read in our local newspaper or hear on television.

I am concerned as to what happens to you in regard to the event to which you are charged. There may be little if anything I can do, but I want to assure you of my interest and prayers.

I have heard nothing and know nothing in regard to your religious background, I am however, prayerfully concerned as to your spiritual life. I am not a judge of your life. There is one judge of life and this is the God who gave us life from the beginning of our days and who offers us eternal life through His Son, Jesus Christ who died on a cruel cross some nineteen hundred years ago, for your sins and mine and for the sins of all mankind.

This Christ is the Savior to all who confess their sin and by faith accept Him as Lord of their life. I know - for one day I was lost in sin, but today rejoice in knowing the forgiveness of my sins and of the new birth and life of which Jesus spoke.

Mr. Ruby, have you ever confessed your sins and believed upon Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord? If not, why not now?

God loves you; He is willing to re-make your life; to send His Son to die for you. The Apostle Paul of the New Testament before his conversion to the Christian faith, felt justified to persecute and kill those who differed with him. He found forgiveness; a new experience and a new life and became a strong witness for Christ and His Church.

From One Who Cares and is Prayerfully Concerned,

Dear Mr. Guly,

I hope you don't think me too forward in writing you at this time. After the horrible deed of it would not be getting it much worse about our side of this.

Although, I don't condone your just in this I certainly don't condemn you. If you have no connection with the man then was a spur of the moment impulse I forgive you. Lots of us wouldn't have done the same thing to Hillis, Cushman
and the other racketeer given a chance,
a gun and the guts!

Enclosed is my business brochure. The photo was taken 10 years ago of my son and I.

I understand you are an ardent admirer of our country's presidents. Collecting stamps of United States has its history on our history books. If you raised like son U.S. stamps of presidents please advise me and I'll gladly send them to you, gratis!

With warmest best wishes
Sincerely

Dear Mr. Ruby:-

Because I admire "nuts" like you, I am enclosing a small check of $10 to add to the fund
you will need to defend yourself in court, for doing what I assume almost 100% of the people in Dallas would have done had they had your nerve; and maybe half of the nation would have done had they had the opportunity to do so.

Good luck to you in court, and may God
forgive you for killing a worthless human being.

Dear Mr. Rubinstein:

This is to express to you my admiration for what you did.
Your action was heroic.

Be sure that millions of people, as the signer, wished, to do the same.

But very few, or nobody, is as brave and unselfish as you are.

To give way to the indignation we all feel; to protest and to avenge one of the most abominable crimes of our times - and definitely the most transcendental since Sarajevo - you have risked your own life.

Therefore, once again, I admire you, and I congratulate you with my warmest feelings.

Please find hereto attached my check for US$ 10, — which I take the liberty to send, to contribute with a grain of sand to the expenses you might have to face for your legal defense.

This letter is signed by only one of the true friends of the U.S.; by only one of the admirers of its disappeared representative, President Kennedy. But I am sure that most people of this country feel the very same way I do.

May God bless you and give you strength to overcome this difficult time.

I remain most cordially

yours

Gaston Grubner R.

Dear Mr. Finkelshteyn,

I trust you have been thinking, while here in that lonely cell. We know there were some good intentions in your mind but God has to keep His laws. "Vengeance is mine, Saith the Lord." The laws of the land are ordained by Him.

Life can be beautiful. I don't know if you have ever thought on the glided news, but I plead with you, take it seriously, apply it to your heart.

Jack, we can receive joy from God's hand obeying the voice of

I just want you to know what you did was the only way.

California is far from you. The Medal of Honor is for you.

Don't worry old pal I knew you in Los Angeles.

We were in your place of business in San Diego when you mentioned you were going to Texas to see your sister back in 1949.

I advise all Texans are a bunch of back biters and you - all - and such.

they could have turned
